

UNAA National Conference 2011

Metro Hotel
61 Canning Highway
South Perth, Western Australia 6051

4th–7th August 2011

United Nations Association of Australia
WA Division

The theme of the conference is 'Goals for Life' - progress towards achievement of the Millennium Development Goals by 2015. The Conference will address our progress in relation to these goals with distinguished keynote speakers and workshops.

Keynote speakers include:

- Professor Robert Hill, UNAA National President and former Permanent Representative of Australia to the United Nations, 2006-9.
- Reverend Tim Costello AO, Director of World Vision Australia, joins us to speak on the 'Elimination of Poverty'.
- Christopher Woodthorpe, MA—Director of UN Information Centre, Canberra will speak on the UN's approach to the Millennium Goals.
- Eversley Ruth Mortlock, BA. MEd., Oxfam Australia Board member, will speak in relation to Gender Equity.
- Benson Saulo, Australia's Youth Representative to United Nations.
- Trisha Langdon, Director of the AIDS Council of WA

MILLENNIUM DEVELOPMENT GOALS

End Poverty and Hunger

Universal Education

Gender Equality

Child Health

Maternal Health

Combat HIV/AIDS

Environmental Sustainability

Global Partnership

For more information visit www.unaa-wa.org.au or contact:

UNAAWA, Level 1, Arcadia House, 1 Roydhouse Street, Subiaco
WA 6008

P: (08) 6380 7304 E: office@unaa-wa.org.au

lotterywest supported